

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT INITIATIVES LAHORE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN UNIVERSITY

RIZQ ASAP LCWU SPEECH CONTEST & MEGA EVENT 2018

The Rizq ASAP (Alliance of Students Against Poverty) LCWU chapter, under the supervision of the Department of Professional Studies and Directorate of Student Affairs, engaged in many co-curricular and social engagement activities in 2018 to raise awareness about Rizq and its mission of ending hunger.

The team hosted a declamation contest to engage LCWU students in discussions on the need for social engagement programs at the university level. The students were also provided a platform to improve their confidence and public speaking skills. The Declamation contest was divided into three rounds.

Auditions Round

In the Auditions round, the Rizq LCWU Advisor Ms. Shagufta Moghal, auditioned around 250 students from the university and intermediate college. Students from all departments of the university participated in the auditions with great enthusiasm. 30 students were selected and promoted to the qualifying round.

Qualifying Round

The Qualifying round of the declamation contest was held on October 24, 2018 in IT Seminar Hall, LCWU. The chief guest for the event was Prof. Dr. Uzma Quraishi, Director

KALAAM E IQBAL: A HUGE SUCCESS

TALK BY MUSA AAMIR

The talk by Musa Aamir, Co-Founder Rizq dealt with the topic of 'The Need for Student Volunteerism and its Impact'. The talk was a part of the 'Inspirations: Meet Young Leaders' Series, under the supervision of Department of Professional Studies, LCWU.

Musa Aamir invigorated the audience with his vibrant presence and inspiring words. The talk ended with a pledge taken by the faculty and students of LCWU to become active members of the initiative to end hunger.

This pledge was the first ever initiative by a university in Pakistan, and the Rizq team appreciated the efforts and passion of the LCWU students and teachers in supporting the fight against food waste and hunger.

LCWU PLEDGED TO END HUNGER

The team of Rizq ASAP LCWU and the students of the entire university took a pledge to fight against hunger and poverty in the Rizq ASAP Mega Event 2018. This pledge was widely circulated on social media by Rizq student Chapters in all universities and the official Rizq team. The founders of Rizq appreciated the endeavours of Lahore College for Women University in mobilizing its students to engage socially as responsible citizens and spread awareness about how to preserve food to end hunger.
