Dean's Message

Faculty of Arts & Social Sciences (FASS), Lahore College for Women University offers opportunities like many other universities of the world. The focus of FASS is to bring women empowerment and economic prosperity by uplifting skills and living standards of deprived women community. This faculty comprises of eighteen Departments and two Institutes which opens avenues distinguishing it from many other universities. All the academic matters relating to the faculty and students in these Departments and Institutes are being routed and supervised by the Dean's Office. This faculty is a magnificent combination of diverse disciplines and multitude of talents. Our students are vibrant for education with innovative thoughts to develop sound communication skills and problem-solving approach in order to face emerging challenges in society. M.Phil. and Ph.D. programs are designed to flourish the culture of research helping policy makers and governments to design their policies in the better interest of the nation. We believe in advancing more inter-disciplinary, collaborative, and social engagement to empower the faculty and students with profound seriousness and overarching competence. We are determined to prepare our students as responsible citizens endeavoring for better future. Our aim is to continue and impart best quality of education under all circumstances as we successfully passed through Covid-19 pandemic. We envision equipping our Departments and Institutes with modern technological advancements necessary to compete with other leading universities of the world. This is all possible with the cooperation and enthusiasm of our well-qualified, well-organized, and efficient faculty members and hardworking administrative staff.

DEPARTMENT OF APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY

OVERVIEW

Department of Applied Psychology, LCWU is a center of academic learning, research and practical experience. It is recognized as one of the most vibrant and progressive academic departments among its contemporaries. The department is currently offering high quality BS 4-Year, MS Health Psychology (2-Year) and PhD Applied Psychology programs. Prof. Dr. Amina Muazzam (Tenured Professor, Director Research) is the Chairperson of the Department and is leading it with a focus on academic excellence. Under her dynamic vision and leadership, the department aspires to meet international standards with an enriched curriculum and cutting-edge research both within and across disciplines. The department focuses on imparting theoretical knowledge with its applications in education and beyond. The courses offered not only foster an understanding of psychological concepts but also cultivate a sense of cultural sensitivity, social responsibility, professional ethics and good citizenship in the students. The faculty members have expertise in a wide range of subject areas, such as clinical psychology, counseling, health psychology, behavioral neuroscience, psychometrics and assessment, developmental, positive psychology, forensic and political psychology. Opportunities to engage in high quality research are provided to both undergraduate and graduate level students under a team of accomplished faculty members who provide both classroom teaching and outside the classroom mentoring to the students. The undergraduate program provides a foundation for the scientific understanding of behavior and mental processes by giving them exposure to behavioral neuroscience experiments, various psychological tests, research tools and statistical software. The postgraduate programs prepare the students to work in diverse healthcare and educational settings. The programs open diverse career avenues in psychology related to teaching, research and practice. Community engagement is another highlight of the department where students are given ample opportunities to do community service, be it through active citizen program, animal welfare society, psychological society or any other available medium. Psychological society, animal welfare society and Muslim psychology chapter are actively being run by the faculty members and students under the clear vision of the chairperson to enhance the personal development and skills of the student body. The department arranges diverse workshops, seminars, webinars and field trips to broaden the experience of students and to disseminate psychological knowledge to the society. We have a supportive and friendly environment with an emphasis on rigorous training to develop the students' intellectual capacities along with an occupational readiness. We look forward to welcome you in the department.

Vision and Mission Statement

The Department of Applied Psychology aims to promote the intellectual development of its students. The focus of the department is to provide students a strong foundation in the basic knowledge related to the nature of psychological processes and to equip them with the skills and competence necessary for successful careers. To fulfill its mission, the department ensures that all its programs are in compliance with professional standards, encourages and supports research for the advancement of knowledge and provides adequate facilities for teaching and all other endeavors important in professional development.

The department provides an enlightening practice that sets clear and high expectations for students, promotes eloquence and vigorous learning in the classroom, gives productive and methodical feedback from faculty and peers, and supports unconditional community services within and beyond the boundaries and borders of LCWU.

DEPARTMENT OF HOME ECONOMICS

OVERVIEW

The Department of Home Economics was established in 1975 at LCWU with Nighat Shah as the first Head of the Department. At that time, this subject was offered only at the Intermediate level. Mrs. Anjum Mirza joined LCW in 1977 as the next Head of the Department. Under her tenure, the subject was introduced at Bachelors level due to immense interest of the students. Initially the course outlined by the Punjab University was followed. After attaining charter, the course was revised and updated. In 2005, a four year degree program of BS (Hons.) in Home Economics was introduced under the directions of the Honourable Governor and HEC. The syllabus was developed in line with the recommendations of the National Committee for the revised curriculum of HEC. Mrs. Abida Talaat took charge as Head of the Department in 2008. The curriculum was updated in 2011 by Higher Education Commission and approved by Board of Studies in June, 2012. In the year 2012, Mrs. Ishrat Azhar took the charge of department. The new curriculum is currently being taught and inculcated from September 2012. Mrs. Yasmin Mudassar took charge as head of department on 4th October, 2018. After her retirement, Dr. Mehreen Ijaz took charge on 6th March, 2019 as Incharge of the department.

Mission Statement

Our mission is to inculcate professional knowledge, skills and ethical values so as to prepare professionals and responsible citizens for the development of community and environment through continual improvement of physical / material and relational dimensions of living.

Learning Objectives

- To provide quality education in the field of Home Economics at Bachelor level through the provision of required facilities and to enable students to compete in the job market and get benefit from it.
- To prepare students for life in a consumer-oriented society and provides a learning foundation for those seeking employment in a wide range of careers in the fields of food and nutrition, textile and clothing, interior and environmental design, human development and family studies and art and design.
- To emphasize the interdependent relationship that exists between individuals or families and their immediate and distant environments and to promote a sense of responsibility towards sustaining resources within those environments.

Outcomes

- Students shall be able to demonstrate perceptual acuity, conceptual and contextual understanding, and technical facility at a professional entry level in their chosen fields of Home Economics.
- Students shall be able to solve visual/aural, conceptual, and technical problems through independently- and collaboratively- generated analysis, evaluation, and refinement.

DEPARTMENT OF PAKISTAN STUDIES

OVERVIEW

The grant status of Degree Awarding Institution to Lahore College for Women on 10th August, 1999 was a milestone in its history. Soon after that Political Science department was privileged as the 1st department to initiate a new two year Master program in Pakistan Studies in September 1999 and 1st batch of 30 students passed out in 2001. BS 4 year degree program was started in the year 2005.

This program was started with the aim to provide quality education and empower women through useful employment to participate in the political and socio economic development of Pakistan. All the faculty members of political science department worked very hard in the process of establishment and strengthening of discipline of Pakistan Studies at Undergraduate and Master level. Two faculty members with M.sc degree in Pakistan Studies (one from Quaid-e-Azam University, Islamabad and other M.A Pakistan Studies from LCWU) were inducted and the process of strengthening the program as a part of Political Science department continued.

The students of Pakistan Studies BS program take active part in voluntary services, Internship programs and writing research reports helps in raising awareness development and capacity building among the students.

Teaching of this subject at master level BS 4-year degree program and compulsory course for all students for inter to undergraduate level enhance the importance of this subject. Keeping in view the overburden of Political Science Department for catering three full fledged subject the administration took the decision to create Pakistan Studies as an independent department in 2017.

The two year master program has been honored to benefit from the untiring services of the following eminent personalities who served as Heads of Department since 1999: Mrs Shameem Bilal, Mrs. Anees Tauqeer, then Mrs. Arjumand Hussain, Mrs Nayyar Masood, Mrs. Mobina Ali and recently under the incharge ship of Mrs. Sobia Naseer.

Learning objectives

- To develop the attitude of objectivity and open mindedness
- To educate about nature of political system in Pakistan
- To overview the evolution of system of law and order in Pakistan
- To provide better understanding about regional politics
- To analyze the cultural diversity in Pakistan
- To create awareness regarding history of Pakistan
- To analyze current situation in the light of past

Mission statement

The mission of the department is to impart knowledge to the students. Similarly to develop the students own historical understanding and applying it in the present situation. In this regard many programs have been introduced in the scheme of the studies of the department. Moreover, our mission is to modify the skills of the students by offering them such courses in the BS program and to generalize their skills of observation and experimentation. Besides this communication skills are also enhanced. By achieving the higher degree of academic excellence the students are prepared for the brighter future. Our BS program open new horizons for the further experimentation in the educational fields and eventually career setting opportunities are being delivered to the degree holder students. Beside this to make the students patriotic Pakistani by imparting knowledge about Pakistan formation, struggle, achievements and future outlook. Making the students a precious contribution at a great extent at the national level and international level.

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

OVERVIEW

The inception of the Political Science Department, LCWU can be traced back to the pre-partition period when Miss Dooha single handedly imparted instruction in the subjects of Civics and Indian History. Later Mrs. Maqbool Hassan joined as the first lecturer in Political Science. By this time the college had shifted to its present building. Mrs. Mohsin, Miss Zohra Shah Mohammad and Mrs. Parveen Hassan further uplifted the department by popularizing the subject as one of the important disciplines in the Humanities group of studies. However the year 1979 was milestone in the history of the Department because postgraduate classes were introduced in the college and a full fledged department with exclusive responsibilities was established.

The Department began to offer Master degree program in Political Science, later the Master degree programs in Pakistan Studies and International Relations were also started in 1999 and 2005 respectively. Afterwards in 2005, Four Years BS Programs in Political Science/ International Relation/Pakistan Studies and Ph.D. program in Political Science were initiated. In 2010 MS Political Science was also initiated. Currently, these programs are being conducted successfully by the department. The department also owes gratitude to eminent professors like Miss Shamim Iqbal Butt, Miss Tahira Bashir, Mrs. Shamsi Hassan, Mrs. Nasreen Javeed and Miss Shaista Wyne who contributed towards the progress of the department.

The following teachers worked as the Heads of the Department., Mrs. Maqbool B. Hassan, Mrs. Mohsin, Miss Zohra Shah Mohammad, Dr. Mrs. Parveen Shaukat, Miss Shamim Bilal, Mrs. Anis Tauqir, Mrs. Arjumand Hussain, Prof. Mrs. Nayyer Masood, Mrs. Mobina Ali, Dr. Qamar Fatima.

Mission

The Mission of the Department is to contribute to the teaching, research and other activities of the university in a productive manner. Various programs are offered by the department, preparing students for active citizenship career and advanced training in various fields. We strive hard to make students think about politics and develop their conceptual and communication skills. In order to achieve the objective of attaining higher degree of academic excellence by means of employing modern techniques and making the students' future prospects brighter and prestigious. Besides, we intend to inculcate a passion among students to shoulder their responsibilities as a patriotic Pakistani as well as the member of International community and would ultimately contribute towards cohesion at national and international level.

Learning Objectives

- To enhance and accelerate the capabilities and potentials of students through teaching, research and other activities of the university in a productive manner.

DEPARTMENT OF TEXTILE DESIGN

OVERVIEW

The Textile Design Department was established in 2012 offering four years professional Degree Program in Textile Design. The department heightens and promotes creativity through teaching and learning by offering academic excellence, personalized attention, proper foundation and skills for an exciting career and a wide spectrum of Textile Design courses suitable for professional needs. The four years bachelor program in Textile Design will train the students for traditional skills like spinning, knitting, off-loom and on-loom weaving, block printing, hand screen printing, tie and dying, as well as modern techniques of digital printing and fabric manipulations. In every course, strong historical and theoretical knowledge of the field and diverse creative practice related to weaving textile and printing to sculptural fiber will be Developed.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE:

These courses are designed to inculcate the ability to perform higher in order thinking skills and articulate visual and art historical concepts in verbal and written forms, through the medium of BFA Textile Design program that equips students with in depth knowledge of designing and developing woven textiles, embroidery and embellishment, textile surface development, fabric manipulation, mixed media textiles, textiles dying and printing and constructed textiles. Considering architecture, sculpture, wall-painting, manuscript painting, stained glass, metalwork, pottery and textiles in their historical contexts. This course explores the challenging world of Fashion and clothing that can be called material zeitgeists of culture. This course addresses the influences, affinities, and relationships of fashion, the visual arts and culture. The psychological and sociological influences of dress, the physical aspects of appearance, and the influences of gender, sexuality, ethnicity, and class on the development of personal identity are explored through the study of style in traditional cultures, popular culture and everyday life. Readings, discussions and research enhance the student's skills in interpreting and articulating their understanding of art, fashion, clothing and culture. Historical Design development: apparel, furnishing, costume, textile arts and non-apparel. Cultural factors that influence designs and designers: textile production and textile art forms, textile as a medium for self-expression and communication across cultures and civilizations and as a source of inspiration for contemporary textile designers.

OUTCOMES

The course is designed to enable the Textile Design student to apply professional industry principles to job situations. Experience gained as a result of this familiarizes the student with career options and the necessary skills and preparation to obtain them. The four year degree program will provide students with the current portfolio requirements for the fashion and Textile industries.

DEPARTMENT OF VISUAL ARTS

OVERVIEW

The Department of Visual Arts is one of the oldest Department of this University. This Department has provided a strong footing for Lahore College for Women University, with its long production history. It was established by Miss Nasim Hafeez Qazi in 1952, since then this Department seeks to interweave creative expression, art theory, and fine arts practice.

We challenge our students to think beyond the classroom, to interpret the arts within a broader visual culture, treating the classroom as a testing ground for their ideas. The strong partnership between the Fine Arts and Art History helps to promote our critical approach, which is grounded in both contemporary and historical concerns.

VISION AND MISSION

The BFA Program of Visual Arts trains students to use their creativity, curiosity, talent, and intellect to build an artistic vision upon a cultural and contemporary ground. Multiple types of traditional training allow the students to explore the techniques and methods of the master artists. Moreover, a studio-based visual arts curriculum equips the students with new ways of thinking and expressing themselves. The faculty is dedicated to fostering the value of academics, work ethics, humanistic values, and critical thinking. The program provides students with the liberty and opportunity to develop them as studio practitioners and art historians; enabling them to contribute to the artistic, scholarly, and social discourse.

DEPARTMENT OF GENDER AND DEVELOPMENT STUDIES

OVERVIEW

The Department of Gender and Development Studies at LCWU started functioning in 2004. The major objective of the establishment of this department, besides imparting education is to inculcate awareness, assertiveness, self confidence, and entrepreneurial zeal in the students. Today our students are a batch of active citizens who excel in curricular and co-curricular activities, have established their own NGOs, and have been successfully executing their income generation projects. The department was in a three years partnership with George Washington University (GWU) U.S.A. Under this partnership the LCWU faculty and selected MS students went to GWU for training and learning. This partnership covered the aspects of curriculum development, student and faculty exchange, international conferences, collaborative research and similar activities. The department developed a partnership with School of Environment, Resources and Development (SERD) of Asian Institute of Technology (AIT) Thailand in 2018 for five years. Exchange faculty visits and research collaborations are vital components of this partnership. Department of Gender and Development Studies always takes the lead for advocacy of women's empowerment. Our alumni students are working closely with well-known civil society organizations to further strengthen the cause of women's empowerment such as UNWOMEN, Human Rights Commission of Pakistan, Pakistan Girl Guides Association, APWA, SMEDA, SPO, Care Foundation, Bedaari, Kashaf Bank, Aurat Foundation and Women Empowerment Group. Today, our economically empowered students have owned their successful entrepreneurial projects as well. Department has recently signed a MOU with Women Development Department, Punjab and establishment of Women Development Centre is an integral part of this partnership.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

OVERVIEW

The development and progress of any country are positively correlated with the development of its educational system and institutions. LCWU has emerged as a center of excellence over the years in higher education in Pakistan. At Ruth Pfau Women Institute for Leadership and Learning (WILL), students are educated with the motto "Enter to Learn, leave to lead". WILL has been playing a significant role in promoting leadership skills along with scholarly zeal in young females. Sociology is the scientific study of the structure and function of human societies, cultures, and social institutions. The students of sociology develop a rich understanding of the makeup of, and the relationship between very simple and basic institutions like family on one hand and very complex ones such as bureaucracy and government on the other. The discipline has very rich content, broad scope, and immense applicability. Today, Sociology is one of the most popular social science. The scope of Sociology is very broad and the discipline has wide applicability to our society. The graduates of Sociology are performing professional services in government and private sectors such as institutional, organizational, welfare, social, and health care services in addition to teaching, research, and development. The major objective of the establishment of this department, besides imparting education in a popular discipline, is to open doorways to new avenues in the job market. The department of Sociology introduced the BS program in 2016. HEC guidelines have been followed in the layout of the curriculum. The faculty of the department warmly welcomes young scholars to our department for a fruitful learning experience in the next four years.

Learning Objectives:

- Introduction of an interesting and personally relevant discipline to the students.
- Developing high-quality professionals who are committed to the pursuit of excellence with a vision, courage to think, and dedication.
- Generation, assimilation, and dissemination of knowledge.
- Making a significant and meaningful contribution towards the social and economic stability of Pakistan through the development of human resources.
- To encourage understanding and analysis of the social phenomenon, issues, and solutions.
